

Medi-Cal for Former Foster Youth: County Specific Information

This document provides information on who to contact and/or where to go to apply for Medi-Cal in your county if you were in foster care at age 18 or older. These contacts can also help if you are having an issue with your Medi-Cal coverage. A ★ means this is the best and easiest way to sign up for Medi-Cal in that county. If there isn't a star, we listed the main county office where you can go to apply. There may be other offices where you can apply in your county.

Not sure which county you live in? Go to: <http://www.naco.org/counties/pages/citysearch.aspx> and enter your zip code or city to find your county.

You can also sign up online at: www.coveredca.com.

If you were in foster care at the age 18 or older, you qualify for free Medi-Cal coverage until age 26, regardless of income or immigration status.

Even if you were not in foster care at the age of 18 or older, you may still qualify for Medi-Cal regardless of immigration status. For information about Medi-Cal coverage up to age 26 for undocumented young adults who were not in foster care at age 18 or older, visit: <https://health4allyoungadults.org/>
